NSW MULTICULTURAL SENIORS ASSOCIATION GRANDPARENTS' DAY WEDDING ANNIVERSARY & AMP; CULTURAL REPORT PERFORMANCE! 2018.10.27

NSW Multicultural Seniors Association at Granville Town Hall 10 Carlton St Granville on Saturday October 27, 2018. Hold the "Warming and Respecting Wedding's Anniversary & Literary Reports Performance".

Chief Planning and Event director president, YingLan Ge

Executive planer: Sue Wang. Activity coordination: Dong Zhang. Executive director: Anna. Stage supervision: ZhenQi Tan. Members of the Wedding preparatory committee and the volunteers carefully coordinated, clearly defined the division of labor, and worked tirelessly to set up a warm wedding celebration and performances.

From 8 to 10 am, "Soufan and Anna" organized that 20 golden and silver wedding couples and their family members were taken photography by professional photographer Dong. Zhang。

10:00 host Sunny Sun (female) and Xiao Yan announce event starting. The Beijing Voice Choir in English "Song of Australia" and in Chinese "Singing the Motherland" began to kick off.

Hosts introduces guests to the seat

President YingLan Ge delivered a speech, thanked the leaders and sponsors of the Cumberland government for their love and support to the Association, and congratulated the grandparents' wedding anniversary! Following the guests who are Deputy Mayor Clr Glenn Elmore, MP Julia Finn, MP George Campbell, MP Kun Huang and Zhanjiang City Association President Jinzhi Huang, the wedding couples and the team leaders of the art team were taken a group photos.

10:30~11:00 every five couples come to the stage to introduce their marriage and their love for a lifetime by the hosts, exchange rings and so on. "Yin Feng, He Qing" represented of wedding couples to give a speech and thanked the Association for caring love of the elderly. The wedding couples' grandchildren on the scene performed "the Jasmine" dance to congratulate grandparents on their golden and silver wedding anniversary, happiness and longevity!

At 11:30, the performance was reported to Cumberland Council. Following children's "jasmine" dance in the warm-up area, the Jasmine Art Team of NSW MSA dances "The Land of the Motherland" unveiled the venue. The songs are flowing and the passion is flying. The three-voiced "Savannah Love Song" brings us to the green wild grassland of the motherland, "the wind blows the grass and sees the cattle and sheep". Cheongsam dance, sailor dance, waist drum inspiration, four-step shape, graceful dance, elegant and melodious. All of them are pleasing to the eye and amazing. The songs screamed with the dance, cheering and applauding. The cheongsam dance "Watery and Gentle Water" shows the oriental charm and demonstrates the profoundness of the splendid Chinese traditional culture. The grand finale was special performed "Love Brothers Going to the South" by the Rhyme of Maple Art Team.

After lunch at 12:30, the host announced behalf of the Association this is the first time for wedding anniversary of the elderly. We will continue to hold such celebrations every year, caring for warmth and touching.

The wedding couples in paired start dancing with the beautiful music into the venue. The family members stepped into the dance floor then all the congregations stepped into the dance floor, interacting and dancing. The atmosphere was warm and euphemistic.

The conference represented the sponsor's loves prize to all the attendance.

At 3 pm, all the staff and actors were divided into two rows to farewell to the guests and Wedding couples. Today "Grandparents' Day Wedding anniversary and Literary Reporting Performance" came to a successful conclusion.

It is unforgettable celebration of Golden and silver weddings anniversary with singing and dancing, highlighting the love and chasing the dream of the future.

Yin lan Ge, who was awarded the honorary title of Excellent Community Service by the Municipal Government

Good news: On 26th January 2019 the National Day in Australia, the Fairfield City government Council held a commendation ceremony at the Prairiewood Leisure Centre to recognize outstanding volunteers who are actively serving the community.

I am really honored to be the president of the New South Wales Multicultural Seniors Association: Yin lan Ge, who was awarded the honorary title of Excellent Community Service by the Municipal Government. This is the glory of our Association. Congratulations to the President Yin Lan Ge, she is worthy of the name! We must learn from her spirit, quality and style and better serve the Chinese and overseas Chinese to provide love and service!

The New South Wales Multicultural Seniors Association has always guided the Chinese and overseas Chinese in the middle and old age to go out of their homes and integrate into society and live a healthy life. Participate in the discussion and exchange of community construction planning, hold various forms of celebrations and condolence performances. Our Association has daily activities and is praised by various government departments... After that, we will continue to work hard to integrate more Chinese and overseas Chinese into the Australian community and participate in community activities. Let NSW Multicultural Seniors Association become a happy home for the elderly!

President Yin Lan Ge of the New South Wales Multicultural Seniors Association was invited by the State Assembly to celebrate the National Day reception

On January 26, 2019, at 2 pm at Old Government House in Parramatta Park in Sydney, the old city government house, the state government parliamentary hosted the National day reception. The event has the participation of the governor and important figures from various departments. As the guest president Yin Lan Ge of the New South Wales Multicultural Seniors Association was invited by the State Assembly to celebrate the National Day reception. Also Zongming Wei, Meiyun Qi and Secretary Jiang were attended event. The celebration reception is grand and friendly, the beautiful environment and the excellent service are very successful! I am grateful to the state government for the care and encouragement of the Chinese and overseas Chinese groups in the middle and old age... The New South Wales Multicultural Seniors Association has become more and more famous and has received the attention of various government departments. The New South Wales Multicultural Seniors Association will continue to work hard to coordinate with the government departments to carry out activities to promote the healthy living of middle-aged and elderly people, so that more middle-aged and elderly people feel that the happiness index is improving in the Australian territory...

NSW Multicultural Seniors Association Christmas celebration on 22nd December 2018

The activity is divided into three parts; theatrical performances, dining and dances. The event began: President Ge sent a festive greeting to all the staff and everyone for wishing good health and good luck! Then the literary performance began: thanks to president Yuan Ye came, thanks to the beautiful singing of the beautiful girl Tingting Gao to add a new color to the festival, thanks to the recording of the live video for the show, photographer Mr. Zeyang Bao, teacher Li An and teacher Zhang. Through this performance, everyone reflected the art teams that level and taste have been greatly improved and each has its own characteristics. These achievements are inseparable from the efforts of the team captains and the hard training of the team members. Performance exploration is inseparable. You have a hard time! Good on you! After the show, lunch started. Then executive president Duo arranged the dance with the band under the command of Daojun Zhu. The happy Christmas music song kicked off the prologue of the dance. Everyone danced and celebrated the arrival of Christmas. The joy is always so beautiful! Thanks to the platform of NSW Multicultural Seniors Association brought the Chinese and overseas Chinese together to celebrate Christmas. Especially the committee members who came early today, the enthusiastic members and volunteers are outstanding performance. I am most grateful to all the actors and friends who came to the event. Thanks to your performances and visits, the festive atmosphere is particularly lively. I know how many of you contributed and will double the rewards from NSW Multicultural Seniors Association. I hope everyone will work together to push the activities of NSW Multicultural Seniors Association to another higher level... Finally, happy holidays for everyone!

Four Seas in the Spring Festival, singing and dancing 2019.02.17 years like a song, Chinese family portrait

On the evening of February 16, 2019, the Australian Chinese Association held a large-scale parade on the "Chinese New Year Celebration" in the Chatswood District of Willoughby City. The on-site parade was initiated by Willoughby Mayor and the members of the Willoughby. The police band opened the way. More than 300 Chinese and overseas Chinese members of the Chinese Association were dressed in festive costumes. They were singing and dancing in a parade. The streets were surrounded by people and watched the applause. The music and the cheers came one after another. Together, it creates a sea of joy. NSW Multicultural Seniors Association organized 5 teams of more than 120 literary and artistic phalanxes to perform the Lantern parade performance, the cheongsam team, the yangko team, the golden age band and the Little Red Riding Hood Art Troupe with a strong lineup and finale. In the parade, the performance of the celebration of the songs and the fitness of the double ball dance, twisting and jumping, dancing and spreading the Chinese national culture! The rich Chinese style, the joyful Chinese festival, the smart Spring Festival, Chinese and overseas Chinese gathered together, and greeted the ancestral home with joy!
